23 select one or more persons to serve as the conciliators.

24 (b) The conciliator shall assist the parties in an independent and impartial manner

26 shall be guided by principles of objectivity, fairness, and justice and shall give
27 consideration to, among other things, the rights and obligations of the parties, the usages
28 of the trade concerned, and the circumstances surrounding the dispute, including any 29 previous practices between the parties.

30 (c) The conciliator may conduct the conciliation proceedings in a manner that the 31 conciliator considers appropriate, considering the circumstances of the case, the wishes of

40 conciliation agreement and send copies to the parties, specifying the time within which 43 (b) A party is not required to accept a settlement proposed by the conciliator.

"§ 1-567.71. Confidentiality.

(a) Evidence of anything said or of an admission made in the course of a conciliation is not admissible, and disclosure of that evidence shall not be compelled in any arbitration or civil action in which, under law, testimony may be compelled to be given. This subsection does not limit the admissibility of evidence when all parties participating in conciliation consent to its disclosure.

(b) If evidence is offered in violation of this section, the arbitral tribunal or the court shall make any order it considers appropriate to deal with the matter, including an order restricting the introduction of evidence or dismissing the case.

(c) Unless the document otherwise provides, a document prepared for the purpose of, in the course of, or pursuant to the conciliation, or a copy of such document, is not admissible in evidence, and disclosure of the document shall not be compelled in any arbitration or civil action in which, under law, testimony may be compelled.

"§ 1-567.72. Stay of arbitration; resort to other proceedings.

(a) The agreement of the parties to submit a dispute to conciliation is considered an agreement between or among those parties to stay all judicial or arbitral proceedings from the beginning of conciliation until the termination of conciliation proceedings.

(b) All applicable limitation periods, including periods of prescription, are tolled or extended on the beginning of conciliation proceedings under this Part as to all parties to the conciliation proceedings until the tenth day following the date of termination of the proceedings. 2 If the conciliation proceeding settles the dispute and the result of the conciliation is in
3 writing and signed by the conciliators and the parties or their representatives, the written
4 agreement shall be treated as an arbitral award rendered by an arbitral tribunal under this
5 Article and has the same force and effect as a final award in arbitration.

6 "§ 1-567.75. Costs.

7 (a) On termination of the conciliation proceeding, the conciliators shall set the 8 costs of the conciliation and give written notice of the costs to the parties. For purposes

15 consent of the parties.

16 (5) The cost of any court.

17 (b) Costs shall be borne equally by the parties unless a conciliation agreement
18 provides for a different apportionment. All other expenses incurred by a party shall be 19 borne by that party.

20 "§ 1-567.76. Effect on jurisdiction.

21 Requesting conciliation, consenting to participate in the conciliation proceedings,
22 participating in conciliation proceedings, or entering into a conciliation agreement does
23 not constitute consenting to the jurisdiction of any court in this State if conciliation fails.

24 "§ 1-567.77. Immunity of conciliators and parties.

25 (a) A conciliator, party, or representative of a conciliator or party, while present in 26 this State for the purpose of arranging for or participating in conciliation under this Part,
27 is not subject to service of process on any civil matter related to the conciliation.

28 (b) A person who serves as a conciliator shall have the same immunity as judges
29 from civil liability for their official conduct in any proceeding subject to this Part. This 30 qualified immunity does not apply to acts or omissions which occur with respect to the 31 operation of a motor vehicle."

32 Section 8. This act becomes effective October 1, 1997, and applies to any
33 international commercial disputes that are subject on or after that date to conciliation
