A BILL TO BE ENTITLED

1 AN ACT TO STRENGTHEN THE STATE VETERINARIAN'S AUTHORITY TO 2 PREVENT AND CONTROL AN OUTBREAK OF FOOT AND MOUTH 3 DISEASE AND ANY OTHER CONTAGIOUS ANIMAL DISEASE AND TO 4 MAKE OTHER TECHNICAL AND CONFORMING CHANGES.
5

6 The General Assembly of North Carolina enacts:

7 PART I. PROVISIONS TO STRENGTHEN THE AUTHORITY OF THE 8 STATE VETERINARIAN.

9 SECTION 1. Part 9 of Article 34 of Chapter 106 of the General Statutes is 10 amended by adding two new sections to read:

11 "§ 106-399.4. Imminent threat of contagious animal disease; emergency measures 12 and procedures.

13 (a) When determined by the State Veterinarian, in consultation with the 14 Commissioner of Agriculture, that there is an imminent threat within the State of a 15 contagious animal disease that has the potential for very serious and rapid spread, is of 16 serious socio-economic and public health consequence, or is of major importance in the 17 international trade of animals and animal products, the State Veterinarian or an 18 authorized representative may develop and implement any emergency measures and 19 procedures that the State Veterinarian determines necessary to prevent and control the 20 animal disease.

1       (b) Written notice of emergency procedures and measures implemented under 2 this section, including an identification of the disease threat and a description of any 3 potentially infected area and animal, shall be mailed or delivered to news media, farm 4 organizations, agriculture agencies, and any other interested or affected parties as 5 determined by the State Veterinarian. Such emergency procedures and measures may 6 include, but are not limited to, restrictions on the transportation of any potentially 7 infected animals, restrictions on the transportation of agriculture products and other 8 commodities into and out of potentially infected areas, restrictions on access to 9 potentially infected areas, quarantines under G.S. 106-401(a), emergency disinfectant
10 and other control measures at all portals of entry into the State, including airports, ports, 11 and other transportation corridors, and any other measures necessary to prevent and 12 control the threat of disease infection.

13       (c) All State agencies and political subdivisions of the State shall cooperate with 14 the implementation of the emergency procedures and measures developed under this 15 section. All State agencies and political subdivisions of the State shall comply with the 16 emergency procedures and measures developed under this section.

17       (d) When determined by the State Veterinarian, in consultation with the 18 Commissioner of Agriculture, that there is an imminent threat within the State of a 19 contagious animal disease that has the potential for very serious and rapid spread, is of 20 serious socio-economic and public health consequence, or is of major importance in the 21 international trade of animals and animal products, the State Veterinarian or an 22 authorized representative may enter any property in the State to examine any animal 23 that the State Veterinarian has reasonable grounds to believe is infected with or exposed 24 to a contagious animal disease. The owner or operator of the premises on which the 25 animal is located shall permit entry on the premises by the State Veterinarian or an 26 authorized representative and shall cooperate with the State Veterinarian or an 27 authorized representative. The provisions of G.S. 106-401(a) with respect to obtaining 28 an emergency order do not apply to this subsection.

29 § 106-399.5. Warrantless inspections.

30       When determined by the State Veterinarian, in consultation with the Commissioner 31 of Agriculture, that there is an imminent threat within the State of a contagious animal 32 disease that has the potential for very serious and rapid spread, is of serious socio-33 economic and public health consequence, or is of major importance in the international 34 trade of animals and animal products, the State Veterinarian or an authorized 35 representative may stop and inspect without a warrant any individual or any motor 36 vehicle on a public or private road that is moving:

37           (1) Into the State from any other country, to determine whether the 38 individual or motor vehicle is carrying any animal or any article that is 39 capable of introducing or spreading the animal disease.

40           (2) In interstate commerce, upon probable cause to believe that the 41 individual or motor vehicle is carrying any animal or any article that is 42 capable of introducing or spreading the animal disease.

43           (3) In intrastate commerce from any other portion of the State or from any 44 premises or area quarantined under G.S. 106-401, upon probable cause

1 to believe that the individual or motor vehicle is carrying any animal 2 or any article that is capable of introducing or spreading the animal 3 disease."

4 SECTION 2. G.S. 106-401 reads as rewritten:

5 "§ 106-401. State Veterinarian authorized to quarantine.

6 (a) The State Veterinarian or his~~an~~ authorized representative is~~authorized to go~~
7 upon or may enter any property in the State, or to State or stop any motor vehicle on a 8 public or private road to examine any animal which he~~that~~ the State Veterinarian has 28 effect until cancelled by official written notice from the State Veterinarian or his~~an~~ 29 authorized representative and such~~representative~~ representative, and the quarantine shall not be 30 cancelled until any sick or diseased animal has been properly disposed of and the 31 premises have been properly cleaned and disinfected.

32 (b) When determined by the State Veterinarian, in consultation with the 33 Commissioner of Agriculture, that there is an imminent threat within the State of a
34 contagious animal disease that has the potential for very serious and rapid spread, is of 35 serious socio-economic and public health consequence, or is of major importance in the 36 international trade of animals and animal products, the State Veterinarian or an 37 authorized representative may quarantine areas within the State. As part of the 38 quarantine under this subsection, the State Veterinarian or an authorized representative 39 may enter any property in the State to examine any animal, to obtain blood and tissue 40 samples for testing for the animal disease, and for any other reason directly related to 41 preventing or controlling the animal disease, and may stop motor vehicles on a public or 42 private road. The provisions of subsection (a) of this section with respect to obtaining an 43 emergency order do not apply to this subsection. Written notice of the quarantine, 44 including a description of the area and the type of animal affected by the disease, shall

1 be mailed or delivered to news media, farm organizations, agriculture agencies, and 2 other entities reasonably calculated to give notice of the quarantine to affected animal
3 owners, to the owners or operators of affected premises, and to the public. No animal 4 subject to the quarantine shall be moved to any other premises unless permitted by the 5 State Veterinarian or an authorized representative in writing."

6 SECTION 3. Part 9 of Article 34 of Chapter 106 of the General Statutes is 7 amended by adding the following section:

8 "§ 106-402.1. Movement of animals prohibited; destruction of animals to control 9 animal disease authorized.

10 (a) When determined by the State Veterinarian, in consultation with the
11 Commissioner of Agriculture, that there is an imminent threat within the State of a 12 contagious animal disease that has the potential for very serious and rapid spread, is of 13 serious socio-economic and public health consequence, or is of major importance in the 14 international trade of animals and animal products or that it is necessary to control a 15 contagious animal disease, the State Veterinarian or an authorized representative may 16 prohibit the movement of any animal to or from any premises used for shows, sales, 17 markets, fairs, exhibitions, processing or rendering facilities, or other public or private 18 assembly or may prohibit commingling of animals. Written notice of the prohibition 19 under this subsection shall be mailed, delivered, or otherwise provided to the owner or 20 operator of the premises by any means reasonably calculated to give notice. The owner 21 or operator of the premises shall not permit any animal to enter or remain on the 22 premises in violation of this section.

23 (b) When determined by the State Veterinarian, in consultation with the 24 Commissioner of Agriculture, that there is an imminent threat within the State of a
25 contagious animal disease that has the potential for very serious and rapid spread, is of 26 serious socio-economic and public health consequence, or is of major importance in the 27 international trade of animals and animal products or that it is necessary to control a 28 contagious animal disease, the State Veterinarian may order the destruction of any 29 animal and, after consulting with the State Health Director, the proper disposal of the 30 animal. G.S. 106-403 does not apply to the disposal of animals under this subsection.
31 The order shall be in writing and shall include the manner in which the destruction of 32 the animal will be carried out. The order shall be delivered to the owner of the animal 33 and the owner or operator of the premises on which the animal is located by certified 34 mail or any other means reasonably calculated to give the owner of the animal and the 35 owner or operator of the premises notice. In the event the owner of the animal and the 36 owner or operator of the premises cannot be notified, the State Veterinarian or an 37 authorized representative may seize the animal. The owner or operator of the premises
38 on which the animal is located shall permit entry on the premises by the State 39 Veterinarian or an authorized representative and shall cooperate with the State 40 Veterinarian or an authorized representative. The provisions of G.S. 106-401(a) with 41 respect to obtaining an emergency order do not apply to this subsection.

42 (c) When determined by the State Veterinarian, in consultation with the 43 Commissioner of Agriculture, that there is an imminent threat within the State of a 44 contagious animal disease that has the potential for very serious and rapid spread, is of

1 serious socio-economic and public health consequence, or is of major importance in the 2 international trade of animals and animal products or that it is necessary to control a 3 contagious animal disease, the State Veterinarian may require the Executive Director of 4 the Wildlife Resources Commission to develop a plan to address the movement of 5 wildlife and the destruction of wildlife."
