SECTION 1. Chapter 147 of the General Statutes is amended by adding a new Article to read:

"Article 3E.

"North Carolina Surgeon General.

"§ 147-33.125. North Carolina Surgeon General; appointment, duties, and salary.

(a) There is established the position of North Carolina Surgeon General for the State of North Carolina. The Governor shall appoint a North Carolina Surgeon General to serve as the State's chief public health advocate. The North Carolina Surgeon General shall serve for a term of four years, to run concurrently with the term of the Governor. Beginning January 1, 2024, the appointment shall be subject to confirmation by the Senate. The North Carolina Surgeon General may be appointed to consecutive terms.

(b) The Surgeon General shall report directly to the Governor and shall work closely with the Secretary of the North Carolina Department of Health and Human Services (Secretary) to ensure compliance with the strategic plans, policies, and implementation activities of the Department of Health and Human Services (Department). The Department shall provide adequate staff and other support as needed.

(c) The North Carolina Surgeon General shall advise the Governor and the Secretary on health policy and be a key spokesperson for the State on public health issues throughout the State by providing North Carolina residents with the best medical and scientific evidence on current health issues through public health reports and other tools of public communication.

(d) The North Carolina Surgeon General shall have the following qualifications:

(1) Be a physician licensed to practice medicine in this State.

(2) Possess exceptional communication skills across multiple platforms, including scientific and community forums, policy-making venues, and traditional and digital media outlets.

(3) Be a recognized leader in addressing the root causes of health disparities.

(4) Have a demonstrated commitment to serving individuals whose health outcomes are at risk due to social determinants of health such as food

1 insecurity, housing instability, unmet transportation needs, and interpersonal
2 violence.
3 (e) The salary of the North Carolina Surgeon General shall be fixed by the Governor."
4 SECTION 2. There is appropriated from the General Fund to the Office of the 5 Governor the sum of one hundred fifty thousand dollars ($150,000) in recurring funds for the 6 2020-2021 fiscal year to create one full-time North Carolina Surgeon General position within the 7 Office of the Governor, in accordance with G.S. 147-33.125.
8 SECTION 3. This act becomes effective July 1, 2020.
