1 A BILL TO BE ENTITLED
2 AN ACT TO CREATE THE NORTH CAROLINA JUDICIAL PRIVACY ACT.
3 The General Assembly of North Carolina enacts:

4 SECTION 1. Subchapter VII of Chapter 7A of the General Statutes is amended by 5 adding a new Article to read:

6 "Article 31C.
7 "Judicial Privacy Act.

8 "§ 7A-410.5A. Title.

9 This Article shall be known and may be cited as the "North Carolina Judicial Privacy Act."

10 "§ 7A-410.5B. Purpose.

11 The purpose of this Article is to improve the safety and security of North Carolina judicial 12 officials to ensure those officials are able to administer justice fairly without fear of personal 13 reprisal from individuals affected by the decisions those officials make in the course of carrying 14 out the public function of each judicial official's duties.

15 This Article is not intended to restrain a judicial official from independently making public 16 the official's own personal information. Additionally, no government agency, person, business, 17 or association has any obligation under this Article to protect the privacy of a judicial official's 18 personal information until the judicial official makes a written request pursuant to this Article 19 that the official's personal information not be publicly posted.

20 Nothing in this Article shall be construed to impair free access to decisions and opinions 21 expressed by judicial officials in the course of carrying out each judicial official's public 22 functions.

23 "§ 7A-410.5C. Definitions.

24 The following definitions apply in this Article:

- 25 (1) Government agency. – All agencies, authorities, boards, commissions, 26 departments, institutions, offices, and any other bodies politic and corporate 27 of the State created by the Constitution or statute, whether in the executive, 28 judicial, or legislative branch; all units and corporate outgrowths created by 29 executive order of the Governor or any constitutional officer, by the Supreme 30 Court, or by resolution of the General Assembly; or agencies, authorities, 31 boards, commissions, departments, institutions, offices, and any other bodies 32 politic and corporate of a unit of local government or school district.

- 1 (2) Home address. – A judicial official's permanent residence and any secondary 2 residences affirmatively identified by the judicial official, not including a 3 judicial official's work address.
- 4 (3) Immediate family. – A judicial official's spouse, child, parent, or any blood 5 relative of the judicial official or the judicial official's spouse who lives in the 6 same residence as the judicial official.
- 7 (4) Judicial official. – Actively employed, former, or deceased (i) justices of the 8 United States Supreme Court and North Carolina Supreme Court, (ii) judges 9 of the United States Court of Appeals and North Carolina Court of Appeals, 10 (iii) judges and magistrate judges of the United States District Court, (iv) 11 judges of the United States Bankruptcy Court, and (v) judges presiding over 12 North Carolina superior courts and district courts.
- 13 (5) Personal information. – A home address, home telephone number, mobile 14 telephone number, pager number, personal email address, social security 15 number, federal tax identification number, checking and savings account 16 numbers, credit card numbers, marital status, and identity of children under 17 the age of 18.
- 18 (6) Publicly available content. – Any written, printed, or electronic document or 19 record that provides information or that serves as a document or record 20 maintained, controlled, or in the possession of a government agency that may 21 be obtained by any person or entity, from the internet, from the government 22 agency upon request either free of charge or for a fee, or in response to a 23 request under the federal Freedom of Information Act.
- 24 (7) Publicly post or publicly display. – To publicly communicate to another or 25 otherwise make available to the general public.
- 26 (8) Written request. – Written notice signed by a judicial official or a 27 representative of the judicial official's employer requesting a government 28 agency, person, business, or association refrain from posting or displaying 29 publicly available content that includes the judicial official's personal 30 information.

31 "§ 7A-410.5D. Publicly posting or displaying a judicial official's personal information by 32 government agencies.

33 (a) Government agencies shall not publicly post or display publicly available content that 34 includes a judicial official's personal information, provided that the government agency has 35 received a written request in accordance with G.S. 7A-410.5F that it refrain from disclosing the 36 judicial official's personal information. After a government agency has received a written request, 37 that agency shall remove the judicial official's personal information from publicly available 38 content within five business days. After the government agency has removed the judicial 39 official's personal information from publicly available content, the agency shall not publicly post 40 or display publicly the information and the judicial official's personal information shall be exempt 41 from public records requests made pursuant to Chapter 132 of the General Statutes unless the 42 government agency has received consent from the judicial official to make the personal 43 information available to the public.

44 (b) If a government agency fails to comply with a written request to refrain from 45 disclosing personal information made pursuant to this Article, the judicial official may bring an 46 action seeking injunctive or declaratory relief in any court of competent jurisdiction.

47 "§ 7A-410.5E. Publicly posting or displaying a judicial official's personal information on 48 the internet by persons, businesses, and associations.

49 (a) Prohibited Conduct. –

- 50 (1) All persons, businesses, and associations shall refrain from publicly posting 51 or displaying on the internet publicly available content that includes a judicial 1 official's personal information, provided that the judicial official has made a 2 written request to the person, business, or association that it refrain from 3 disclosing the personal information.

- 4 (2) No person, business, or association shall solicit, sell, or trade on the internet a 5 judicial official's personal information with the intent to pose an imminent and 6 serious threat to the health and safety of the judicial official or the judicial 7 official's immediate family.

8 This subsection includes, but is not limited to, internet phone directories, internet search 9 engines, internet data aggregators, and internet service providers.

10 (b) Required Conduct. –

- 11 (1) After a person, business, or association has received a written request from a 12 judicial official to protect the privacy of the official's personal information, 13 that person, business, or association shall have 72 hours to remove the 14 personal information from the internet.
- 15 (2) After a person, business, or association has received a written request from a 16 judicial official, that person, business, or association shall ensure that the 17 judicial official's personal information is not made available on any website 18 or subsidiary website controlled by that person, business, or association.
- 19 (3) After receiving a judicial official's written request, no person, business, or 20 association shall transfer the judicial official's personal information to any 21 other person, business, or association through any medium.

22 (c) Redress. – A judicial official whose information is made public as a result of a 23 violation of this Article may bring an action seeking injunctive or declaratory relief in any court 24 of competent jurisdiction. If the court grants injunctive or declaratory relief, the person, business, 25 or association responsible for the violation shall be required to pay the judicial official's costs 26 and reasonable attorney's fees incurred due to the action.

27 "§ 7A-410.5F. Procedure for completing a written request.

28 (a) Requirement That a Judicial Official Make a Written Request. – No government 29 agency, person, business, or association shall be found to have violated any provision of this 30 Article if the judicial official fails to submit a written request calling for the protection of the 31 official's personal information.

32 (b) Written Request Procedure. – A written request shall be valid if either of the following 33 occurs:

- 34 (1) The judicial official sends a written request directly to a governmental agency, 35 person, business, or association.
- 36 (2) If the Administrative Office of the Courts has a policy and procedure for a 37 State judicial official to file the written request with the Administrative Office 38 of the Courts to notify government agencies, the State judicial official may 39 send the written request to the Administrative Office of the Courts. In each 40 quarter of a calendar year, the Administrative Office of the Courts shall 41 provide a list of all State judicial officials that have submitted a written request 42 to the appropriate officer with ultimate supervisory authority for a government 43 agency. The officer shall promptly provide a copy of the list to any and all 44 government agencies under the officer's supervision. Receipt of the written 45 request list compiled by the Administrative Office of the Courts by a 46 government agency shall constitute a written request to that government 47 agency for the purposes of this Article.

48 (c) A representative from the judicial official's employer may submit a written request on 49 the judicial official's behalf, provided that the judicial official gives written consent to the 50 representative and provided that the representative agrees to furnish a copy of that consent when 1 a written request is made. The representative shall submit the written request as provided in 2 subsection (b) of this section.

3 (d) Information to be Included in the Written Request. – A judicial official's written 4 request shall specify what personal information shall be maintained private pursuant to this 5 Article.

6 If a judicial official wishes to identify a secondary residence as a home address as that term 7 is defined in this Article, the designation shall be made in the written request.

8 A judicial official shall disclose the identity of the official's immediate family members and 9 indicate that the personal information of the official's immediate family members shall also be 10 excluded to the extent that it could reasonably be expected to reveal the personal information of 11 the judicial official.

12 (e) Duration of the Written Request. – A judicial official's written request is valid until 13 the judicial official provides the government agency, person, business, or association with written 14 permission to release the private information. A judicial official's written request expires on the 15 death of the judicial official.

16 "§ 7A-410.5G. Unlawful publication of personal information.

17 It is unlawful for any person to knowingly publicly post on the internet the personal 18 information of a judicial official or member of the judicial official's immediate family if (i) the 19 person knows or reasonably should know that publicly posting the personal information poses an 20 imminent and serious threat to the health and safety of the judicial official or member of the 21 judicial official's immediate family and (ii) the violation of this Article is a proximate cause of 22 bodily injury or death of the judicial official or a member of the judicial official's immediate 23 family.

24 A person that violates this section is guilty of a Class C felony.

25 "§ 7A-410.5H. Exceptions for employees of government agencies.

26 Provided that an employee of a government agency has complied with the conditions set forth 27 in this Article, it is not a violation of G.S. 7A-410.5G if an employee of a government agency 28 publishes, in good faith, personal information prohibited from being published under this Article 29 on the website of the government agency in the ordinary course of carrying out public functions.

30 "§ 7A-410.5I. Construction of Article.

31 This Article and any rules adopted to implement this Article shall be construed broadly to 32 favor the protection of the personal information of judicial officials and members of the judicial 33 official's immediate family."

34 SECTION 2. If any part of this act or its application to any person or circumstance 35 is adjudged invalid, such adjudication or application shall not affect the validity of this act as a 36 whole or of any other part.

37 SECTION 3. This act becomes effective December 1, 2023, and applies to personal 38 information that is made public or continues to remain public on or after that date.
